

PSYCHO-ANALYSIS TOO STRONG FOR SAINT BALL CLUB

Captain Davies Is Losing

NEEDS WOOD ON BALL

Great Strategist Is Sure
That Hitting Will Help His Men

A system of psycho-analysis long employed by the Saints failed to function yesterday afternoon and the Pals followed the more material method of hitting the ball hard and often to win from the ancient enemy by a 7-to-0 score. Expert analysts figured it out before the last invader had been sent to the showers that Palatka did not earn a run, consequently it was a tie game. The vital statistics appended hereto, however, remain the written history of the contest.

The dread hour of psycho-analyzing during the hectic days of a past and forgotten season was wont to throw a fit of blues into the average local fan as well as our sterling athletes, but since Mr. Peters came with his rubber shirt, a non-conductor, and Mr. Wynne, Mr. Callahan, et al., with their Brooksville bludgeons, something more potent than a mystic maze is needed to triumph in the national pastime. Mr. Davies decided early in the present season that wood on the ball was what the Saints needed.

Mr. Davies came near putting over a psycho run in the boneless first when Mr. McDaniel took a hook in the slats after Mr. Cootie Carter had stricken out. Mr. Mac went to second on Mr. Francis' fast one to third, and continued his errand when Mr. Holden failed to hold. With Mr. Mac on third Mr. Slappee Colee tried for a barrel of flour, but Mr. Pete speared it and tossed Mr. Mac into the discard at the plate. After this the Saints subsided and folded their wings.

Callahan Pries It Open.

Mr. Callahan pried open the local half of the first with a loud salute to right center for two bags, went to third when Mr. Robinson dumped a slow one to pitcher and scored when Mr. Wynne shot at one of Mr. Wolf's hind legs. Mr. T. Price bumped into a double when he hit to Mr. Wolfe, who had recovered his equilibrium.

On through until the seventh the demon athletes battled. Mr. Andreu was going strong, but after Mr. Francis made a faux pas of Mr. Tubby's bounder he faltered, tossed Mr. Peters' roller wild and then audibly detonated. Senior Larzo, Mr. Lindsey, the social favorite, singled. Senior Valdez doubled and Mr. Mike Callahan, of Yulee, put it over the parapet, just to the left of the barrel of flour. It all totaled six, and a perfectly good ball game. The material facts:

SEABOARD BOYS A TARTAR IN FINAL LEG OF CAMPAIGN

Take Pals Into Camp the First Time on Local Field

For the first time in the memory of Mr. Brown, the Georgia Southern statistical expert, the Seaboard hung up a record Friday afternoon by vanquishing the Pals in the first game they have had to take the small end of this season on the local lot. Score, 4 to 2.

Mr. Barstow said it was the balls, Mr. Robinson reminded him that the bats also had something to do with the blow off, as a timely single after Mr. Barstow had permitted one safe blow, had safely blown another to first and presented the third with a pass, netted a pair of perfectly good runs that accounted for the score that won the game in the eighth for the visitors.

The maintenance of way and United Order of Locomotive Firemen opened the way for the record in the third when four singles, all in the same place, netted a pair of runs. The best Mr. Robinson's men could do in making the schedule was to eke out one tally on a pair of passes and a single in their half of the same inning.

In the fourth, however, the Pals, again demonstrated their Brooksville bats, and helped Mr. Barstow to a tie. With one down Mr. Lindsey smote a single and Mr. Holden elected to receive on eof Mr. Barstow's smokers in the slats. He won't do it again. Then Mr. Barstow potent factored with a single, sending the alert Mr. Lindsey across.

All went well until the eighth, when the sturdy Mr. Barrett polled a single to right, Paul was passed and Manion was slatted. Filling the bases with no one out looked bad. Mr. Eady, hitting for Mr. Crosby, punched one to Holden, who tossed Barrett out at the plate and Charley completed the double to Robinson. It looked better, but Mr. Summerlin had one more bingle left in his system and fired it off in time to score Messrs. Paul and Halpin. The time table:

The bank at present occupies quarters in the Graham building.

Buick Agency Has Changed Over to Studebaker Line

Under the name of Fowler & Blake, the interests which formerly handled Buick automobiles here has taken over the Studebaker line of cars for an extensive territory and in future will handle only this one line. This change was made after long and careful consideration and investigation by Messrs. Fowler & Blake, and the rush of sales since they took over the Studebaker agency seems to justify their decision.

The Palatka branch of this firm will be handled by Jack Blake, who built up such a business for the Buick agency. For the present the firm will continue to handle Buick parts and render service on these cars, but will discontinue this at the earliest practical moment to devote all of their time and attention to the Studebaker line.

Mr. Blake is recognized as one of the liveliest wires in the Florida automobile business, and Mr. Fowler has proven after many years of dealing that he is one of the foremost men in the automotive industry in the state.

Nineteen Chinks Smuggled Into a Port Near Tampa

(By Associated Press) Tampa, June 10.—Federal immigration authorities announced today that with the arrest of six Chinese here last night they had discovered that a party of 19 of them were smuggled into Tampa last Sunday night from Cuba. The officials stated that two chauffeurs held as material witnesses had informed them they took thirteen of the aliens to Devils Island in Polk county and delivered them to agents of the smuggling gang.

Arrest of the Chinese resulted from a wholesale raid which netted, in addition, two men and two women, and it was announced that Norris McFall, a constable of this county, was named in one of the warrants issued. The warrant for the arrest of the constable had not been served early tonight. The nineteen Chinese smuggled into Tampa last Sunday composed the second cargo of such aliens to be landed here within the last few weeks. Twenty-nine Chinese were smuggled in on April 22, and, after the arrest of several persons charged with being implicated with their importation, officers rounded up a half dozen of the aliens. They were deported to Cuba from whence they came.

Shortly after midnight a telephone message from Plant City said the remaining thirteen Chinese had been captured near there by federal offi-

St. Pete Winners of First Half in Lemon Ball League

(By Associated Press) Orlando, June 10.—The first half of the playing season in the Florida Stat league ended today with the St. Petersburg club in first place and Lakeland, Tampa, Daytona, Orlando and Jacksonville finishing in order. St. Petersburg went into first place at the outset and, except for four days, was never headed. The circuit, which was the first organized league in the country to open the season, has a schedule of 120 games, 60 to each half. The second half begins Monday.
